Navigating the Road to Safety: SDG Targets, Governance, and Leadership

We are delighted to share that ahead of Safety 2024, the Independent Council for Road Safety International and the Transportation Research and Injury Prevention Centre (TRIP), at the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Delhi are hosting an insightful and engaging pre-conference workshop on 31st August 2024 at Indian Habitat Centre. The workshop will focus on addressing challenges in data acquisition, emerging traffic risks, and opportunities for achieving traffic safety and SDGs by 2030. The workshop aims to strengthen injury surveillance systems, discuss new technologies in urban transport management, and enhance knowledge sharing. Click here to explore more of such engaging workshops!

Implementation Science Workshop

Join us on 1st September 2024, for a workshop by Dr David Peiris, Chief Scientist, The George Institute for Global Health (TGI), which aims to strengthen your skills, knowledge, and understanding in applying critical evidence and research in health programs. It will also focus on establishing practices for implementing informed changes within health and equip delegates with a robust toolkit to approach implementation challenges strategically. ## Know the Conference Venue

Taj Palace, New Delhi, opened in 1983, is a premier luxury hotel in the diplomatic enclave of Chanakyapuri. Its architecture blends Mughal and contemporary styles, reflecting India's heritage while offering modern amenities. Set amidst six acres of lush gardens, the hotel provides a serene environment in the bustling city.

Taj Palace has several rooms and suites named after prominent figures in Indian history. Some of the notable ones include:

Jehangir: Named after Emperor Jehangir, the fourth Mughal Emperor of India, this room reflects the elegance and sophistication associated with the Mughal era.

Mumtaz: Reminiscent of timeless beauty and romance this room is named after Mumtaz Mahal, the wife of Emperor Shah Jahan and the inspiration behind the construction of the Taj Mahal.

Shahjehan: One of the greatest Mughal emperors, Emperor Shah Jahan is known for his architectural achievements and this room is a tribute to his contributions.

Roshanara: This grand, five-sided medieval-themed venue with elegant tapestries celebrates the Mughal princess and talented poet, Roshanara Begum.

Jahanara: This room features two golden pavilions- one on either side of the Khas Mahal, grandeur befitting Jahanara Begum, a Mughal princess, who was given the imperial title 'Padshah Begum'.

Sheesh Mahal: This room draws inspiration from the name “Sheesh Mahal” or the Palace of Mirrors constructed by Emperor Shah Jahan.

Durbar Ballroom: The word “Durbar” has Persian origins and was initially associated with ceremonial assemblies during the Mughal Empire. The Durbar Hall at the Taj Palace serves as a multifunctional space for business meetings, conferences, and celebrations.
